9 New Deals to Top Spots: Miami, New York City, Paris, and More

By Avital Binshtock
September 16, 2008

There's nothing like traveling in autumn. Something about the turning colors, falling leaves, and relaxed locals make it a remarkably appealing time to vacation -- especially to some of the world's most desirable destinations. If you've caught the travel bug this season, you're not alone. But if these back-to-school days have also left your budget lurching, you'll appreciate these money-saving deals.

All prices are per person unless otherwise noted. See "The deal," "How much," and "When" for details about associated taxes, fees, and travel restrictions. Note that "How much" is our best estimate of what the trip will cost and that taxes and fees can vary based on point of departure and travel dates. Deals are subject to availability, so confirm before booking.

New York City

The deal: NYC Sheratons are offering unique packages by which to experience the metropolis's plethora of cultures. Try the "Brooklyn Experience," available at the Sheraton Manhattan at Times Square as well as the Sheraton New York Hotel & Towers. The deal includes two round-trip MetroCards to ride the subway and two 2-day adult Brooklyn Passes (www.brooklynpass.com), which grant admission to the Brooklyn Museum, Botanic Garden, Children's Museum, New York Aquarium, and an array of other local attractions.

How much: Starting at $419 per night, double occupancy.

When: Through Dec. 30.

Typical cost for a similar trip: About $630 per night, double occupancy.
