

Hotelier Tehmina Adaya
to be given
The Santa Monica Conservancy Preservation Award

The Santa Monica Conservancy will be honoring Tehmina Adaya with the Santa Monica Conservancy Preservation Award of 2009 at their annual meeting. The Preservation Award is given annually to individuals/projects that represent significant milestones in preservation. Tehmina Adaya has successfully refurbished Hotel Shangri-la on Ocean Blvd. Designed by William E. Forster and built in 1939, Hotel Shangri-la was built in the Art Deco style of Streamline Moderne. Now 70 years later, the historic ocean retreat maintains its art deco style with all of the luxury modern amenities of the 21st century including green features, a pool, restaurant and rooftop bar.

Where:

Camera Obscura in Palisades Park
Ocean Ave.
(from Colorado Ave. to San Vicente Blvd.)
Santa Monica, CA 90401

When:

January 25th, 2009
2pm

A reception will be held at Hotel Shangri-la directly following the event.

For press inquiries or for more information, please contact Cara Morrissey or visit www.shangri-la-hotel.com.

Contact:

Cara Morrissey
cara@ballantinespr.com
Tel: 310 454 3080
<http://www.ballantinespr.com>

The Shangri-La Hotel located in Santa Monica, California is owned, operated and managed by Indus Investments, Inc., which is not a corporate affiliate or member hotel of Shangri-La Hotels & Resorts, Shangri-La Hotel Management Ltd., Shangri-La Asia Ltd., or any of their affiliated companies or subsidiaries.